Yachting in Asia - Discover the Undiscovered

Hong Kong's central location in Southeast Asia makes it highly enviable for seafaring explorers, with innumerable opportunities to freely travel to the furthest reaches of this captivating region.

A multifaceted blend of neighbouring countries, cultures and histories, Southeast Asia presents three times the cruising area of the Mediterranean and Caribbean combined, with temperate climates all-year round and rich biodiversity that rivals any location on earth.

In Thailand, enjoy heartfelt hospitality, world-class diving and an endless series of stunning vistas. In Vietnam, work your way down the coast through spectacular rock formations at Ha Long Bay to the glorious beaches of Phu Quoc.

In Malaysia, indulge in exotic culinary delights among 800 different islands. In the Philippines, explore over 7,000 islands peppered by pure white-sand beaches and waters as clear as day. And in Indonesia, the world's largest archipelago, get lost among its 17,000 islands and 50,000 km of coastline, with a near-infinite number of inspiring sceneries and sights.

Marine exploration or sailing holidays, business cruises or family adventures, there's no limit to sailing around Southeast Asia.

Mainland China

Hong Kong's placement as the gateway to mainland China offers its residents and visitors easy access to the immense country. Just a short sail north of the city, mainland China is a true global superpower, a place of endless sub-cultures, with distinctive ports set all across its country.

From the commercial vibrancy of Shenzhen through to the East-West mélange of Shanghai, the stunning natural sights of Hainan to the white sand resorts of Sanya, the opportunities to sail along its coasts are endless.

And with the rise of the country's elite, a sizeable increase has been seen in the number of boat shows, yacht fairs and sailing events set on its shores, making it an important port-of-call for those keenly interested in the world of yachts.

An Extraordinary Experience in Discovery Bay

Set on the northeast shore of Hong Kong's largest outlying island, Lantau, and developed since the 1970s as a high-end resort-style residential community, Discovery Bay now enjoys the privilege of being one of the most enjoyably encompassing areas to reside in the city.

With 20,000 residents, over 50 different nationalities and 8,000-plus residential units, it exists as a true melting-pot community, bolstered by the island's privately-built-and-managed tunnel allowing frequent jetsetters direct access to the international airport in just 20 minutes.

Innumerable leisure activities give Discovery Bay the feel of an island holiday escape, including alfresco drinking and dining on its shores, an impressive manmade beach, alongside a resort hotel and an award-winning wedding and events venue. Its two retail hubs, DB Plaza and DB North, present a host of interesting leisure, F&B and commercial offers.

Discovery Bay is also highly regarded as a pioneer of member's clubs in Hong Kong. The Lantau Yacht Club is now set to add to that, allowing enthusiasts to take to the oceans and sail beyond its shores.
